Curators' Picks

We are sharing pieces from our galleries and collections to help bring peace and inspiration while we all practice social distancing. Our curators have chosen these pieces to give you the museum experience from home. To see more #CuratorsPicks, follow us on our social media channels.

Joseph Bourne's pottery (Denby, Derbyshire, England, 1819–50). Daniel O'Connell Flask, circa 1835, stoneware, salt glaze. Gift of Nicholas Johnson. 2019.26.5

"Daniel O'Connell" Flask. This alcohol flask is molded in the likeness of Daniel O'Connell (1775–1847), an Irish attorney and formidable statesman. In the first few decades of the 19th century, he labored for political reforms for Irish Catholics from the British Parliament. The flask, a recent gift to the Mint, and can be seen on view in our upcoming exhibition New Days, New Works.
